

1. Read the story starter. Continue writing the story. Use as many long A words as you can. Use the picture bank to help you. Remember to sound out your words.

Once there was a good little girl with a red hood. She had to cook...

2. Underline all your OO spelling patterns. How many OO words did you use in your story?