

1. When we make a word into a plural we add the letter 'S'. Sometimes this sounds like a /s/ and sometimes like a /z/. Draw a line to show if you hear a /s/ or /z/ sound at the end of these words.

	→

2. If we can hear an extra beat and it sounds like /iz/ we have to write 'es'. If the word ends in 'y' we switch it to an 'i' and add 'es'. Draw a line to show why these words needed an 'es' ending.

cries	→		kisses
foxes			flies
skies			matches

3. Complete these suffix sums. Then circle the sound the plural ending is making AND the join you used:

king + s = kings	s z iz
sky + s =	s z iz
brush + s =	s z iz
book + s =	s z iz
lunch + s =	s z iz	